

Camp UPeninsulin

Dear Parents/Guardians,

Camp UPeninsulin is open to U.P. youth with type 1 diabetes between the ages of 9 and 15. Youth aged 16 and 17 are invited to apply to be junior counselors. The goals of the medical staff at Camp UPeninsulin are to help each child (1) have an enjoyable recreational experience in a safe and healthy setting away from home, and (2) increase his/her knowledge about diabetes management. The medical staff believes that good diabetes control is important and necessary for children with diabetes. However, diabetes management at camp poses some special challenges that we wish to tell you about before camp.

Predicting insulin requirements at camp is difficult because life at camp (e.g. meals and activity) is very different from life at home. The medical staff usually prescribes different insulin doses at camp than those used at home. Since we are reviewing the blood sugar level of every camper daily, we sometimes achieve better control than they achieve at home. However, it is possible that despite our best effort, blood sugar may not be as good as it is at home.

At camp each child is asked to take food portions consistent with his/her individual meal plan, which may be adjusted by the dietitian for increased need from increased activity. At times, the campers will be given snacks and food choices that may contain more sugar than what they are permitted at home. The choices offered are chosen by us based on their carbohydrate content. Children who do not wish to eat these foods will be offered other choices.

Since children mature at different rates, some children are not able or prepared to inject insulin, adjust pumps or check blood sugar independently. The medical staff will assist those children who appear ready to advance their skills, but no undue pressure will be applied.

You will meet with the medical staff when you bring your child to camp. This is an opportunity to discuss your concerns regarding your child's diabetes care. When you come to take your child home, the medical staff is again available to review your child's diabetes record. Please use these occasions to offer and obtain the necessary information regarding your child's diabetes management. You may also request your child's diabetes log be sent home to you after camp.

As we did last year, we are asking families to assist with the clean-up on Saturday at the end of camp. Please be sure to discuss this as a family, fill out the commitment form & based on that decision return the appropriate registration fee with your child's forms.

Camp space is limited so please register early.

Sincerely,

Medical Committee, Camp UPeninsulin
April 2022

Camp is made possible through private donations & the combined efforts of UP Health System-Marquette and the many diabetes educators, nurses, dietitians, and physicians who give of their time and expertise and of course, the dedicated support of the camp committee, under the leadership of Dr. Toby Carlson. Please thank them!
